THE TIMES OF CHRIST PICTURED ON FILMS

The program at the Butler for tonight is one of the very best ever shown at the popular place of amusement. La Petite Ruth and Master Herschel will be seen again in an entire change of songs and dances.

The pictures for tonight are of the very best, including "The Musical Ranch," a Lubin Western drama; "The Police Force of New York City," an Edison scenic, and "Herod and the New-Born King," an illustration of the first part of chapter 2 of the Gospel of St. Matthew. No more beautiful and artistic film has been shown during the year.

Every scene is a marvel of accurate representation.

A reading of that chapter in the Bible will supply a synopsis more graphic than any that could be written here.

On account of the length of the program the first show will start at 8:50 p. m.

GEO. S. NIXON HONORED AGAIN

HON. GEORGE S. NIXON,
Elected Today to Succeed Himself as United States Senator from Nevada

(Special to the Bonanza.)

CARSON CITY, Jan. 25.—Both houses of the legislature met at noon today, and in joint ballot formally elected George S. Nixon as United States senator from Nevada, ratifying yesterday's action.

Yesterday's noon session of the two houses was for the purpose of making nominations to the office.

In the senate, Holmes, Republican of Washoe, made the nominating speech. He recalled that six years ago he had the pleasing task of seconding the nomination of Mr. Nixon as successor to Senator Stewart. Mr. Nixon had made a clean fight against an old empire builder, the tall master of the Alamo, the late Governor Sparks, and he had been the victor. It was his first appearance in the national public life. His experience had been varied. He had come to the state penniless but with boundless enthusiasm and courage and knew nothing of the world fall. At the telegraph key on the desert he had learned the lesson of patience and the years of success that followed had not effected the simplicity of his nature in the least. The people had shown faith in electing him and he needed no further eulogy. He had been a faithful servant, he had shown wisdom, he had been true, he had kept faith, he had stood on his record.

Senator Holmes' speech was received with enthusiasm. Seconding speeches were made by Coryell, Democrat of Elko; Miller, Democrat of Lander; Bell, Democrat of Humboldt, and Balzar, Republican of Esmeralda.

LOSES BATTLE DOES PHILLIPS

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—David Graham Phillips has lost his brave fight for life. He died in Bellevue hospital at 11 o'clock last night, the victim of Fitzhugh Coyle Goldsborough.

He was conscious up to within an hour of his death. Up to 9 o'clock the novelist was resting quietly and both physicians and relatives were hopeful of the outcome. He had been conscious all day and had received visitors, among them his sister and brother, United States Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, and several writers of note. After 9 o'clock the patient took a turn for the worse.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25.—"My heart is wrong, but it is God's will, and no human should complain."

These were the words with which Mrs. Margaret Jane Phillips, mother of David Graham Phillips, the novelist, who was shot several days ago by Fitzhugh Goldsborough, a supposedly insane musician, received last night news of her son's death. Mrs. Phillips, who is aged and somewhat infirm, had been kept in ignorance until yesterday at the request of Phillips, who feared that she might not withstand the shock. When the telegram was given her from her son, Harrison H. Phillips, stating that David Graham had been wounded but that hopes were entertained of his recovery.

BOOK SOCIAL AT ELKS' HOME SWELL AFFAIR

The Intale B. P. O. E. stand for the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks; reversed they also stand for an evening of pleasure and books, which is what was enjoyed last night at the Tonopah Elks' home by about 350 people—the Elks and their lady friends.

The occasion was the formal opening of the new club rooms and the christening of the glassy new hardwood floor in the lodge room.

It was called a book social, and as such it was a howling success. Books galore—books large and small; books of all grades and upon hundreds of different subjects—were brought and sent to the club room. Two five-section book cases were filled, and a third cabinet will be required to accommodate the overflow of books which were donated to the new Elks' library.

After the routine work of the lodge the doors were thrown open to the fair guests. Exalted Ruler Keeler spoke a few words of welcome; the house committee formally turned over the club rooms; Mrs. Hugh H. Brown gave a short family talk on some of her European experiences last summer; Dr. Grigsby and Mr. De Courcy put on a German stunt, and then the dancers pre-empted the beautiful ball room and held it until 3 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Brown's recital, which had particular reference to the great Passion Play that is given every ten years in the little German village of Oberammergau, was very interesting. The lady's graceful delivery and her beautiful word picture of the play was received with marked appreciation.

The stunt of Dr. Grigsby and De Courcy made a hit. As entertainers these two gentlemen were certainly clever.

After the 11 o'clock toast by Brother McIntosh, supper was served in the banquet hall.

STATE LAW REGARDING STATEMENTS

NOT THE SAME AS FEDERAL LAW ON SUBJECT, BUT HAS PENALTIES.

Apologues of the law requiring mining companies to publish an annual statement of their business, it is not generally known that there is both a federal and a state law on the subject. It is the federal law that imposes the $1000 fine for non-compliance. The state penalty is different, as will be seen from the law as published below:

"Chapter CVIII. Section 1. All foreign corporations doing business in the state of Nevada shall, during the month of May of this year, and in each succeeding year in the month of January, publish a statement of their last year's business in some daily newspaper in the state of Nevada for a period of one week.

"Section 3. Any corporation coming within the provisions of this act who shall neglect or refuse to file a statement as required by Section 1 of this act, shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each month that the published statement remains unfilled with the several assessors of the state.

"Section 4. Any district attorney in the state is competent to sue to recover this penalty, or the attorney-general. The first county suing through its district attorney, shall secure the penalty."

FIRE BOYS' DANCE OCCURS THIS NIGHT

EVERY PREPARATION MADE BY THE FIREMEN TO MAKE IT A BIG SUCCESS.

The annual ball of the volunteer firemen—and this is their sixth—takes place tonight at Miners' Union hall. In the past this annual event of the fireboys has been looked forward to as the social event of the season, and there is no reason to believe the occasion will be less auspicious this year than before.

The committee on arrangements—J. O'Connell, Scott Mullins and C. H. Mayes—have spared no effort to insure the comfort and enjoyment of the guests. Goldsmith's orchestra has been secured to furnish the music.

The floor committee consists of Clarence Mayes, R. Davidson, Scott Mullins, H. W. Stotsbury, Gene O'Connell, H. W. Atkinson, A. Murphy and L. McQuillan.

A BIG THING HAS KUNZIE IN NEW MEXICO

Arthur Kunze, formerly a resident of Tonopah, where he was interested in several promising mining properties of the early days, has struck a good thing down in New Mexico, according to a letter from him just received by W. W. Booth.

He is in Socorro county, in the San Andreas range, and has relocated an old abandoned mine of the Spanish mission days, once worked by the padres, for which reason he has called it the Lost Padre mine. Kunze says he found at least a hundred tons of ore on the dump. There are several large ore veins in the mine, he says, from one of which he got assays of 14 per cent lead and 55 ounces in silver, and from another 72 per cent lead and 224 ounces of silver.

Kunze says he undoubtedly has a big thing there, and he expects to make his fortune right there. He is willing to take in a few of his friends on the deal, he says.

First show at 8:50 all this week at the Butler.
